HARTFORD HAS IT

UConn Law is centrally located between two of the nation's largest legal markets: Boston and New York City. The City of Hartford, the "Insurance Capital of the United States," offers LLM students the opportunity to intern alongside UConn alumni who are lawyers, judges, federal and state legislators and leaders in non-profit institutions. Students enjoy the perks of living in a New England city without the high cost of living in New York or Boston, making it an ideal student environment.

UConn LAW'S BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS

The historic West End of Hartford is known as a friendly and welcoming community where students, faculty, and staff can get to know each other. With over 40 student groups and organizations, UConn Law has a variety of opportunities for students to become involved and develop their leadership skills to improve the lives of all residents in the wider community.

ENERGY AND ENVIRONMENTAL LAW LLM

- Develop expertise in global and U.S. energy and environmental law, climate change policy, land use or renewable energy law by combining coursework with internships, individual projects or written scholarship.
- Learn to address complex challenges as you move beyond the classroom to work alongside industry experts and gain practical experience through the Center for Energy & Environmental Law.

What sets us apart?

Practical experience

“Through the Center for Energy & Environmental Law I completed field placements at the Department of Energy and Environmental Protection, and the Environmental Department at the Office of the Attorney General. I was able to gain invaluable experience applying what I learned in the classroom to the real world while also confirming my desire to pursue a career in this field of law.”

Arthur Lefevre, United States
Juris Doctor, May 2020
Energy and Environmental Law LLM,
Expected May 2022

GOVERNANCE, RISK MANAGEMENT AND COMPLIANCE LAW LLM

- Gain legal perspective through a curriculum rich in corporate and regulatory governance, financial and insurance-based risk management and compliance.
- Prepare to manage legal and regulatory risk within different types of organizations in crisis and normal operating situations.

What sets us apart?

Engaging with faculty

“The interesting thing I found when I got here was the readiness of the professors to help you. They are very friendly and they want to teach you, to get you where you want to go.”

Elvis Ampadu, Ghana
U.S. Legal Studies LLM, May 2020

HUMAN RIGHTS AND SOCIAL JUSTICE LLM

- Gain expertise in the international and domestic aspects of social justice lawyering with in-depth study of international human rights and civil rights movements.
- Join the growing trend of integrating international and domestic human rights into the realms of business, non-profit agencies and public policy.

What sets us apart?

Human Rights Institute

Students have access to the Human Rights Institute and the Thomas J. Dodd Research Center at Storrs for contributing to global scholarship and exposure to national events.

INSURANCE LAW LLM

- Study with recognized experts in Hartford and draw on the resources of UConn Law's Insurance Law Center, premier academic center for insurance law and risk regulations.
- Develop mastery of insurance and financial services law in the first program of its kind with the largest insurance law collection at any academic institution in the United States.

What sets us apart?

Industry expertise

“I thought ‘What better place to study insurance law than a university that offers one of the best LLM insurance programs and is situated in the insurance capital itself?’ I would like to use my knowledge and upcoming research in insurance to make a positive impact in the insurance sector.”
